

Without vision – the people will perish

This presentation will canvass issues of cultural survival in adversity, interfaith dialogue and challenges in multicultural society, the impact of movement of peoples and new technology on community identity, the persistence of stereotypes and racist caricatures in the Information Age and competing visions of desirable national societies in a globalised world.